

K-LOVE is one of few programs that I don't worry about the content of the message sent. I have a teenager and do listen to other programs and am appalled by the crude language, lack of sensitivity to our diverse cultures, lack of respect for each person's value. K-LOVE provides a loving message. If we are to have peace in the world, it needs to start at home in our community. Without K-LOVE, our local community would lose what little peace we have while our country is at war. I believe K-LOVE is a wonderful service that provides hope that love can conquer all. If we lose this hope, what is there for our community? More negative poison which feeds fear, anger, violence? Our youth are our future and what they hear forms who they are and whom they will become. Without K-LOVE's influence where will they receive hope for a better tomorrow?
